

Article Information

Authors: Greg Whyte, Kate Sambrook, Martin del Gallego, Millie Byrnes Howe, Amelia Atkinson
Service: Dispute Resolution & Litigation

Lexology Getting the Deal Through - Litigation Funding, 2024 Edition

Piper Alderman Partners, Greg Whyte, Martin Del Gallego and Kate Sambrook, with Senior Associate Millie Byrnes Howe and Associate Amelia Atkinson have contributed to the Australian chapter of Getting the Deal Through - Litigation Funding, 2024 Edition, published by Lexology.

Piper Alderman is the Australian contributor to the global guide on litigation funding published by Lexology. The publication compares the legal and practical issues relating to third-party litigation around the world. The guide highlights the importance of litigation funding in assisting litigants to obtain access to justice and Australia's unique position in promoting third party funding.

The 2024 guide addresses a range of topics including relevant regulations; funders' rights; contingency fee arrangements, common fund orders and other funding options; appeal and enforcement; disclosure of funding; as well as current developments and trends in the sector.

Download the Australian chapter here.

Reproduced with permission from Lexology Getting the Deal Through: Litigation Funding, 2024, (published in December 2023 ; © Copyright 2006 - 2023 Law Business Research).