Private Client Services: 2021 Year in Review

As we come to a close on 2021, our Private Client Services team reflect on the achievements and highlights of 2021.

The ongoing affects of the pandemic in 2021 meant our team continued to adapt to local and cross-border restrictions. Despite border closures, our national footprint was maintained and grew, as we engaged with rural and regional clients for remote service provision outside of capital cities.
