ORDER

JUDGE: Justice Beach

DATE OF ORDER: 18 February 2026

WHERE MADE: Melbourne

THE COURT ORDERS THAT:

Discovery Application

1. By 28 April 2026, pursuant to rr 20.13, 20.15, 20.16 and 20.17 of the Federal Court Rules 2011 (Cth), the Respondents give non-standard discovery of the categories set out in Annexure A to these Orders.
2. The balance of the Applicant's interlocutory application filed on 16 December 2025 be dismissed.

Amended Pleadings

3. By 4 August 2026, the Applicant is to serve on the Respondents any proposed Further Amended Consolidated Originating Application and Second Further Amended Consolidated Statement of Claim (Amended Pleadings).
4. By 1 September 2026, the Respondents are to notify the Applicant whether they consent to the Applicant having leave to file the Amended Pleadings or in circumstances where they do not consent, provide a schedule identifying the paragraphs of the Amended Pleadings to which they object and the basis for those objections.

5. If the Respondents consent to the Applicant having leave to file and serve the Amended Pleadings pursuant to order 4 above:
 - (a) the Applicant has leave to file and serve the Amended Pleadings by 3 September 2026; and
 - (b) the Respondents are to file and serve a Defence to the Second Further Amended Consolidated Statement of Claim by 1 October 2026.
6. If the Respondents do not consent to the Applicant having leave to file the Amended Pleadings, the Applicant is to, by 15 September 2026:
 - (a) file and serve any application for leave to file the Amended Pleadings (Amendment Application), together with any evidence and submissions (limited to 10 pages) on which he intends to rely in support of the Amendment Application; and
 - (b) email the Associate to his Honour Justice Beach requesting a hearing date for the Amendment Application on a date mutually convenient to the Court and the parties, which date is to be no earlier than 13 October 2026.
7. By 29 September 2026, the Respondents shall file and serve any evidence and submissions (limited to 10 pages) in response to any Amendment Application.
8. By 6 October 2026, the Applicant shall file and serve any submissions in reply in relation to any Amendment Application (limited to 5 pages).

Evidence

9. By 28 July 2026, the Applicant is to file and serve any expert evidence in chief upon which he intends to rely at the initial trial.
10. By 15 December 2026, the Respondents are to file and serve any lay evidence and expert evidence in chief upon which they intend to rely at the initial trial (save for any evidence the Respondents intend to rely upon in response to any lay evidence subsequently filed and served by the Applicant pursuant to order 12).

11. By 15 March 2027, the Applicant is to file and serve any lay evidence and expert evidence in reply to the evidence filed and served by the Respondents pursuant to order 10.

Sample Group Member evidence

12. By 6 weeks after the date of compliance with order 24(b), the Applicant is to file and serve any further lay evidence in chief upon which he intends to rely at the initial trial, being in respect of any Sample Group Members and any other nominated group members they contemplate calling to give evidence at the initial trial.
13. By 6 weeks after the date of compliance with order 12, the Respondents are to file and serve any evidence in response to the Applicant's lay evidence filed and served pursuant to order 12.
14. By 4 weeks after the date of compliance with order 13, the Applicant is to file and serve any evidence in reply to the evidence filed and served by the Respondents pursuant to order 13.

Opt Out

15. By 4 August 2026, the Applicant is to provide to the Respondents a proposed form of notice or notices regarding the commencement of the proceeding and the rights of group members to opt out of the proceeding, and their ability to register their claim in the proceeding (Notice) and proposed ancillary orders for distribution of the Notice (Proposed Opt Out Orders).
16. By 1 September 2026, the Respondents are to inform the Applicant whether they agree with the Applicant's Proposed Opt Out Orders and Notice, or otherwise what amendments are proposed.
17. If agreement is reached between the parties in relation to the Proposed Opt Out Orders and Notice, the parties are to email agreed proposed orders to the Associate to his Honour Justice Beach by 15 September 2026.
18. If agreement is not reached between the parties in relation to the Proposed Opt Out Orders and Notice:

- (a) by 15 September 2026, the Applicant is to email the Associate to his Honour Justice Beach requesting a hearing date in relation to the Proposed Opt Out Orders and Notice on a date mutually convenient to the Court and the parties, and being the same date as any hearing in accordance with order 6(b);
- (b) by 15 September 2026, the Applicant is to file and serve an outline of submissions not exceeding 5 pages in length in support of his proposed orders; and
- (c) by 29 September 2026, the Respondents are to file and serve an outline of submissions not exceeding 5 pages in length in support of his proposed orders.

Sample Group Members

- 19. On or before 31 March 2026, the Applicant is to provide the Respondents a list of pleaded causes of action which he considers are not covered by his individual claim and in respect of which it is intended sample group member/s will be nominated.
- 20. By 6 weeks after the date fixed as the time and date by which a group member may opt out of this proceeding, the Applicant is to provide the Respondents a table nominating no more than 15 proposed sample group members (Potential Sample Group Members), including any details in respect of each Potential Sample Group Member to assist the Respondents to provide discovery, including (to the extent known having conducted reasonable inquiries):
 - (a) the name and date of birth of the person;
 - (b) the person's IG Account ID;
 - (c) the date range during which the person held an account with the Respondents; and
 - (d) the pleaded causes of action which are said to be covered by the person's circumstances.
- 21. By 2 weeks after the date of compliance with order 20, pursuant to s 33ZF of the Federal Court of Australia Act 1976 (Cth) (the FCA Act), the Respondents are to produce to the Applicant the following in relation to the Potential Sample Group Members identified in accordance with order 20:

Documents which refer specifically to the Potential Sample Group Members (either by name or by other unique identifier such as their account number):

- (a) including but not limited to the Potential Sample Group Member's account documentation (including opening, transfers and upgrades) and account statements and records of orders and (conditional or otherwise) transactions and records of use or participation in any services offered by the Respondents (trading tools, risk management tools and educational tools);
 - (b) but excluding any communications with the Potential Sample Group Members save for where it is necessary to produce such communications to comply with (a).
- 22. By 4 weeks after the date of compliance with order 21, the Applicant is to provide the Respondents with a table setting out, in respect of the Potential Sample Group Members identified in accordance with order 20, which of those persons are proposed as sample group members for the initial trial (Sample Group Member/s), together with an explanation for why each Sample Group Member is being nominated, including by reference to the list of pleaded causes of action provided by the Applicant in accordance with order 19.
- 23. By 2 weeks after the date of compliance with order 22, the Respondents are to provide to the Applicant their response to the table the subject of order 22, indicating whether or not they agree with the appointment of the person or persons proposed as Sample Group Member/s.
- 24. If the Respondents consent to the appointment of the person or persons proposed as Sample Group Member/s in accordance with order 23:
 - (a) by 4 weeks after the date of compliance with order 23, the Applicant is to file and serve points of claim in respect of the Sample Group Member/s;

- (b) by 4 weeks after the date of compliance with order 24(a), pursuant to 33ZF of the FCA Act, the Respondents are to give discovery of any communications (not otherwise discovered pursuant to order 21) with the Sample Group Members;
 - (c) by 4 weeks after the date of compliance with order 24(a), pursuant to s 33ZF of the FCA Act, the Sample Group Member/s are to give discovery on a standard basis; and
 - (d) by 2 weeks after the date of compliance with order 24(c), the Respondents are to file and serve points of defence to the points of claim in respect of the sample group members.
25. If the Respondents do not consent to the appointment of the person or persons proposed as Sample Group Member/s for the initial trial in accordance with order 23:
- (a) by 2 weeks after the date of compliance with order 23, the Applicant is to file and serve any application in respect of the proposed Sample Group Member/s (SGM Application), together with any evidence and submissions (limited to 10 pages) on which he intends to rely in support of the SGM Application;
 - (b) by 2 weeks after the date of compliance with order 25(a), the Respondents shall file and serve any evidence and submissions (limited to 10 pages) in response to any SGM Application;
 - (c) by 1 week after the date of compliance with order 25(a), the Applicant shall file and serve any submissions in reply (limited to 5 pages); and
 - (d) the SGM Application is to be listed for hearing on a date mutually convenient to the Court and the parties, which date is to be no earlier than 4 weeks after the date of compliance with order 25(a).

Mediation

26. By 25 May 2027, the parties are to participate in a private mediation before a mediator agreed between the parties, or otherwise appointed by the Court in default of agreement.

Date for trial

27. There be an initial hearing of all issues in the Applicant's individual claim, the individual claims of any Sample Group Member and all other common issues commencing on 29 November 2027 on an estimate of four weeks.
